DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-25, 45, 46, 52-56 and 105-108, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 184.
  - II. Claims 26-44 and 47-50, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 1.3.
  - III. Claim 51, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 137.
  - IV. Claims 57-104, 109-118 and 181, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 172.
  - V. Claims 119-162, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 1.3.
  - VI. Claims 163-166, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 33.
  - VII. Claims 167-175, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 26.
  - VIII. Claims 176-80, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 137.
  - IX. Claims 182-190, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 33.
  - X. Claims 191-196 and 202-203, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 184.
  - XI. Claims 197-201, drawn to a method, classified in class 134, subclass 1.3.
  - XII. Claims 204-205, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 186.

XIII. Claims 206-207, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 134, subclass 94.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of Groups I, III, IV, VIII, X, XII and XIII are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects.

Invention of Group I requires means for providing acoustic energy to a non-device side and means for flowing a fluid to a device side.

Invention of Group III requires plurality of process chambers.

Invention of Group IV requires a platter with a hole and a fluid source connected through the hole.

Invention of Group VIII requires a specific bracket.

Invention of Group X requires plurality of the wafers together with plurality of transducers.

Invention of Group XII requires plurality of quartz rod positioned above the wafer.

Invention of Group XIII requires controlling electronics and a chemical source.

These specifics of each Group do not required by any other group.

3. Inventions of Groups II, V, VI, VII, IX and XI are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects.

Art Unit: 1746

Invention of Group II requires transmitting sonic energy to a non-device side, while flowing a liquid on the device side.

Invention of Group V requires positioning of the bracket, and flowing a chemical between the bracket and the bottom side.

Invention of Group VI requires positioning of the wafer and rotating the bracket with several different speeds.

Invention of Group VII requires positioning of transducers and providing a wafer with specific structures.

Invention of Group IX requires specific maintaining of the wafer position.

Invention of Group XI requires positioning of the plurality of the wafers in a specific way, providing megasonic energy in one direction and providing acoustic energy in a different direction.

These specifics of each Group do not required by any other group.

4. Inventions of Groups II, V, VI, VII, IX and XI and Groups I, III, IV, VIII, X, XII and XIII are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand because none of the method Groups requires the recited specifics of the method Groups to practice the claimed method.

Art Unit: 1746

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for any of the Groups is not required for any other Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
